Let It Burn

The love of your life
has made you learn.
The heat of love
can linger on.

And it swells your eyes
as it burns.
Believe it or not
you'll miss it when its gone.

Let it burn
It'll do you wonders
Once in a while
to set your feelings free.

Let it burn
and face the blunders
After all its the pain
that makes love so sweet.

Fortunate are we
who face love twice.
It happens to most
only in their dreams.

But how we bleed
and pay the price.
Its not all roses
like it seems.

Let it burn
It'll do you wonders
Once in a while
to set your feelings free.

Let it burn
and face the blunders
After all its the pain
that makes love so sweet.
Love so sweet...
