Love Begins With Friends

When I see you.
When your smiling eyes
let me laugh again

When I'm with you.
When you let me know
You'll always be a friend.

Sometimes I'll meet you
by the sweet sunshine,
or sometimes in the rain

Yes I'll meet you.
And because you're there
we renew our love again

Like a friend...to the end.
Love begins...with friends.

Like a shadow.
I'll stay by your side
through thick and when its thin

Always by you.
Always there to see you on and on my friend.

Like a friend...to the end.
Love begins...with friends.

Like a friend...to the end.
Love begins...with friends.

...with friends
...with friends
...with friends
