

Soldiers Are Coming

Lyrics to song of same name by Billy Wall

© 2006 Billy Wall – All rights reserved.

Rumors are spreading.
They're all over town.
Rumors of war...going round and round.

They call up the young men.
We go every one.
To join in the battle...to be in the fun.

The soldiers are coming.
The horses are running.
This one's going to be fun, and the ladies will sigh.

A few weeks of drilling and marching around.
Prepare us for fighting and serving real proud.

All around the parade ground the bugles they blew.
Eagerly awaiting our turn for we knew.

The soldiers are coming.
The horses are running.
This one's going to be fun, and the ladies wave goodbye.

The soldiers are coming.
The horses are running.
This one's going to be fun, and the ladies wave goodbye.

We marched into battle our innocence bared.
Through salvos and skirmishes
till we ran scared.

Then the truth came a callin' with the news of this hell.
No heroes or honor
to each as they fell.

The soldiers are coming.
The horses are running.
This one's going to be fun...and the ladies will cry...
and the ladies will cry...and the ladies will cry...